OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY
ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Grand Traverse Resort

October 12th – 13th, 2015
The Grand Traverse Resort
100 Grand Traverse Village Blvd.
Acme, MI 49610
KEY NOTE SPEAKER
Monday, October 12th
Time: 8:00-9:30am

Amy Lamb, OTD, OTRL, FAOTA, President-Elect of AOTA

EVERYDAY ADVOCACY IN OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY PRACTICE

Dr. Lamb is the current President-Elect of the American Occupational Therapy Association serving in that capacity through June 2016. She will serve as President of the American Occupational Therapy Association from July 2016 – June 2019. She previously served as Vice President of the American Occupational Therapy Association from 2012-2015. In addition she is Program Director of Eastern Michigan University’s Occupational Therapy program, and owner of AJLamb Consulting. She is the immediate past chair of the American Occupational Therapy Political Action Committee (AOTPAC). She brings with her the valuable combination of clinical practice as a registered occupational therapist combined together with health care policy experience at the state and federal levels. Dr. Lamb’s expertise includes health policy, prevention and wellness, and occupational therapy as a career.

Dr. Lamb received both her Bachelors of Science in Occupational Therapy and her post professional Doctor of Occupational Therapy from Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska.

Dr. Lamb got her policy start in the Minnesota House of Representatives working with the Health Policy committee. She was the paid lobbyist for the Nebraska Occupational Therapy Association from 2000-2008.

Dr. Lamb’s clinical practice spans from private practice, school based pediatrics, acute care, and elders. Prior to her current position she was an Outpatient Director with Brookdale Senior Living managing the outpatient therapy clinics, home health rehabilitation services and hospice services in assisted living and independent living communities in the Denver Colorado area.

In 2012, Dr. Lamb was selected to join the AOTA Roster of Fellows. In 2011, she received the Lindy Boggs advocacy award from the American Occupational Therapy Association for her leadership in advocacy and political action in the profession of occupational therapy. Dr. Lamb is the 2014 recipient of the Eastern Michigan University College of Health and Human Services Everett L. Marshall Fellow Award for Excellence in Service.

In her volunteer leadership positions, Dr. Lamb is part of the team that helps occupational therapy professionals understand the policy agenda of the association and the role they as health care professionals play in advocacy, she organizes the grassroots, educates others on issues, and spends time on the hill with members of Congress to meet the needs of the Association. She is integral in articulating the distinct value of occupational therapy in traditional and emerging areas of practice including primary care and wellness initiatives.

Dr. Lamb speaks regularly to groups on health policy issues impacting practice and benefits of consumers and provides participants with practical ways to get involved in the process and make their voices heard. She currently resides outside of Dexter, Michigan with her husband Nathan and their two children Gabby (13) and Josh (11).

Lunch with Bret Marr, MiOTA Lobbyist
Monday, October 12th
Time: 12:30 pm

Bret Marr the MiOTA lobbyist will present on the current legislation issues that may impact the practice of Occupational Therapy, reimbursement of services, and/or care of our patients. You will earn PDU credit for attending.

Bret Marr joined MHSA in 2003 after successfully serving as Director of Legislative Affairs for former Governor John Engler. Bret served as the primary contact between the Michigan Legislature and Governor Engler on legislative and appropriations issues. Bret coordinated Michigan’s electric restructuring plan in the Legislature as well as the rewrite of Michigan’s Telecommunications Act. He also shepherded numerous changes to Michigan’s tax structure, including a rewrite of the Brownfield program and streamlining of the tax reverted property process.

Consistently voted one of Lansing’s top lobbyists, Bret’s focus is now on hospitality, healthcare, transportation and general business issues. He also manages several appropriations issues for MHSA’s clients. In recent years, he has successfully secured funding for the Detroit Super Bowl XL Host Committee, state approval of a new events center in the City of Detroit and directed the efforts of a coalition moving Michigan’s school start date to after Labor Day.

Prior to serving Governor Engler, Bret was Director of Government Affairs for the Michigan Restaurant Association (MRA). He served as the MRA’s Lansing and Washington, D.C. lobbyist and coordinated a strong grass roots program. Bret began his career in the Michigan Senate as Communications Director for the Chair of the Education Committee. While a Senate staff member, he served as policy advisor to the Appropriations Committee and advisor to the Economic Development and Financial Services Committees.

Bret graduated with a bachelor of science in Public Affairs Management from Michigan State University and received his Masters of Public Administration, also from MSU, where he graduated with honors. He served on the Michigan Travel Commission and is a member of the Michigan Political History Society. He also coaches youth soccer and hockey.

Bret is married to Jenna and resides in Okemos with their three children.

PLEDGE TOTAL (Feel free to use a second form) $
The Political Action Committee for Michigan called “Friends of OT in Michigan” was reactivated on June 30th, 2014. Since then the Friends of OT have raised >$3,700 through donations and the Silent Action at last two annual MiOTA Conference!

Please consider donating an item for the auction or even bidding on an item. Proceeds are used to advance our OT “voice” within the state of Michigan especially during these changing times of health care reform. No donation is too small (even students can contribute).

Ideas for donations: time shares, skis, simple ball point pens, bottle(s) of wine, handmade stained glass hangings, handmade American Girl doll dresses, homegrown alpaca wool, handmade woven scarves, blown glass pumpkins, handmade chocolate covered Oreos, sporting event tickets, gift cards, golf packages, autographed items, etc.

Send in your contribution(s) and the “Contributors’ Form” to:

Debra Lindstrom & Jackie West-Frasier
